

Commemorative History Book Order Form

Hard Cover 8 1/2 X 11 book, acid free 80# paper, covers the history of our Village from the early 1900's to present.

Many pictures, stories, and facts, about our churches, schools, fire and police depts. and more.

- Find out why we have changed our name, many times before becoming Sturtevant.
- Did you know we had an airport, or how about a German Prisoner War Camp?
- When did the New York Yankees come to town?

Published by Wadsworth Co., written by Nicole Redmann. Perfect to be shared with many generations. Help us preserve our history.

- Very Limited Quantities Available •

Deadline for orders Oct 1st. 2007 Reserve yours today:

To order

Send check to Sturtevant Centennial
2801 89th ST.
Sturtevant, WI 53177

$30.00 each
$25.00 each (5 or more)

NAME _____
ADDRESS _____
PHONE _____

QTY. _____ TOTAL $ _____

Books will be available around October 2007

Back Row: Frances Torres, Elaine Herke, Betty Gastrow, Lila Mae Deiring, Shirley Gastrow, May Ann Anderson, Fay Young, Lawrence Moore

Dick Photoplace, Donald Harman, Louise Polzin, Art Harman, Paul Lewis, Robert Calhoun, Jack Tucker, Tom Stubinski

Jane Reed, Patricia Reed, Lillian Heiderford, Helen Jorgenson, Charlotte Christiansen, Bernice Harman, Jean Bowers, Mary Newman, Beverly Collins

Front Row: Charles Juntler, Rufus William Borenford, Jerry Webb, Elmer Hamilton, Bobby Joe Parr, Kenneth Kerr

visit our web site : www.sturtevant-wi.gov